Queen Pics Pilfered; May Vote Lady in Dark

The student body might vote for ten homecoming queen semi-finalists tomorrow without knowing what many of the candidates look like.

Twenty of the 35 pictures were stolen Tuesday evening, according to Jim Bernardi, homecoming committee chairman. Locks were picked on the glass cases near the Co-op which contained the photos.

Monkeys, Balloons Are Theme for AWS Homecoming

Balloons, organ grinders and monkeys will make up the Associated Women Students' entry in this year's Homecoming parade, according to Jan Wilson, AWS secretary. Joan Harlan is in charge of the float.

The AWS state-wide meet, to be held this Saturday at Stanford, was discussed further. Barbara Gough, Ellie Allen and Carol Kennedy are making programs for the convention.

Paula Shahinian, publicity chairman, told members that AWS activity calendars are still on sale at the Graduate Manager's office for 15 cents. This catalogues all of the events for the coming school year.

Plans for the Thanksgiving AWS-AMS joint project at Agnew were reported. Tray favors are to be made for the patients. Phyllis Carter told about the WAA Hoe-down and reminded the girls that only a few tickets are left.

Marilyn Scott is in charge of next week's program.

Greek Groups Toil Over Show Skits

Skits are being whipped into shape at the various campus sororities and fraternities today in preparation for the forthcoming All-Greek show, sponsored by Theta Chi fraternity.

Skit themes were reviewed at a meeting at the Theta Chi house Monday with Dr. Stanley C. Benz, dean of men, and Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women, present. Representatives of 14 fraternities and ten sororities were on hand to help plot the event slated for Oct. 28 at 7:30 p.m. in Morris Dailey auditorium.

The show will be divided into 12 acts, an intermission, then the remaining 12 acts. Skits will be limited to four minutes, according to Theta Chi spokesmen.

Co-chairman for the presentation are Karl Schultz and Don Ruiz. Master of ceremonies will be two Theta Chi alumni, Marv Bronstein and Joe Thornley.

Music for the show will be provided by Rich Blaustein and his combo.

Reviewing committee for the show is Dean Benz, Dean Dimmick, Miss Marie Carr, associate professor of speech; Mr. Paul H. Eckert, assistant professor of economics; John Aitken, student body president; Darlene Clayton, AWS president; and Dave Pantowski, AMS president.

Waits, Morals Rap

Lyle Albert Walsh, 27, is in the county jail today awaiting trial on a morals charge after being arrested on San Antonio street, near the college at 5:30 p.m. on Monday.

Police reported a college co-ed ran to a phone and called them, saying she had been accosted by Walsh. Several minutes later police arrested Walsh as he sat in his car on San Antonio street.

Student Council Hears Ball Report About Rooters' Bus

Appearing at yesterday's meeting of the Student Council, Jerry Ball, chairman of the Rally committee, reported that only 15 tickets on the buses to Eugene, Oregon have been sold. He stated that he doubted if enough tickets would be sold to allow a single bus to travel to Saturday's football contest with the Webfoots.

Homecoming Boss

JIM BERNARDI

According to Ball, the stipulation in the agreement with the bus company was that all seats on each bus be sold. This meant that 39 tickets had to be purchased by students.

Ball reported that 100 tickets to the Oregon game which had been allotted to San Jose State college had been collected by students and estimated that many have decided to take the trek north in private automobiles.

Another bus which will not be traveling to Oregon is one bearing the San Jose State college band. The Student Council decided not to override a recommendation by the Board of Control. The Board of Control did not choose to send the bus to Oregon.

Jim Bernardi, Homecoming chairman, relayed a request to the Student Council to insure this year's Homecoming parade. The estimated cost is about $50. The original request came from the Ancient Order of Scots who are parading immediately before the San Jose State college parade and the City of San Jose whose reviewing stand will be used by the judges.

Appointments delayed from last week, made by the Student Council included: Art Lund, Nancy Ash, Charles Waughmann and Ralph Abascal, Spartan Shop board; Bill Tarr, Joy Mitchell, Betty Kauffmann, Hermania Jimenez and Art Ensley, Fairness committee.

Bill Eckert, vice-president of the Student Council, reported that some dissatisfaction exists in the downtown theaters. He disclosed also that the Saratoga theater wishes to set a student rate of 50 cents and has in mind scheduling foreign films if the plan proves successful.

Frosh, Sophs Vie at Mixer

The Sophomore class is sponsoring this quarter's Frosh-Soph Mixer, scheduled for tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the Women's gym. According to Don Abinante, chairman of the dance, the affair will feature a 16-18 piece band from Stanford University.

A tug of war and an apple dunking contest between the two classes is on the agenda, as well as other entertainment, refreshments, and games. Old fashioned cider barrels, pumpkins, and a constalk-lined entrance to the gym will add to the ghost 'n goblin atmosphere. Admission is free.

The mixers, held each quarter, are conducted on a competitive basis. The two classes will be judged on attendance, entertainment, dancing, and games. Patrons for the mixer will be Rocci Pisano, adviser to the freshman class; Dr. Harrison McCreath, adviser to the sophomore class and Col. Jonathan E. Rogers, head of Army ROTC.

Committee chairmen are Don Fletcher, publicity; Ron Gilpatrick, games; Bob Lindsay, decorations; Dolores Mathias and Bill Kennedy, entertainment; and Stan Harvey, refreshments.

Tickets Available

Tickets are available for all performances of "Twelfth Night," according to Mrs. Linda French, Drama department secretary.

The Shakespearean play is scheduled to run from tomorrow through Oct. 31, excepting Sunday. Tickets are 50 cents for students and 75 cents for others and may be obtained in Room 37.

21 Candidates Seek Office Tomorrow

A total of 21 candidates will be on the ballot seeking 14 offices when the student body goes to the polls tomorrow. The election will be conducted by members of the Student Court and Student Council in front of the Morris Dailey auditorium.

The polls will open at 8 a.m. and will remain open all day until 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Students desiring to vote will have to present their student body cards before they will be issued a ballot. All ballots must be stamped or they will be discarded.

Each voter will be given two separate ballots, one for the class elections and one for the Homecoming Queen election. Everyone will make three choices for queen and the 10 receiving the most votes will be advanced to the semi-finals.

There will be a separate ballot for each class. The senior, junior and sophomore classes will vote for the all-college offices, which tomorrow will be the offices of male and female justice; their respective class offices; and the proposed amendment to the constitution.

The freshman class ballot will carry the names of candidates for the all-college offices and the proposed amendment to the constitution.

Members of the Spartan Shields will prepare the signs directing students in voting. The Spartan Spears will be on hand to pin "I Have Voted" tags on each voter. Members of Alpha Phi Omega will be in charge of setting up the election booths.

All-college office candidates are: Bill Frizelle, candidate for Sophomore male justice; Trish Meyers and Nancy Joan Bloss, candidates for Sophomore female justice.

Several candidates were disqualified because they either did not complete their petitions or did not hand them in at all. Strauss Now-pose damendment to the consti-

Transfer Students Allowed To Run

Under a new interpretation of the constitution by the Student Court, students who have transferred from other colleges this quarter will be allowed to run for office under the same ruling by which freshmen are allowed to run.

The constitution states that each candidate for class office, excepting freshmen, "shall have been an active member of his respective class council for at least one of the three quarters previous to nomination."

The court has broadened its interpretation to include college transfers who have had no opportunity to be active members of their class councils.

"I don't know who did it," said Bernardi, "but I suspect persons from Santa Clara or Stanford. Fellows in red college-jackets were wandering around campus that night."

The 35 contestants have been asked to contact their photographers and ask for their prints. "We're not sure the pictures can be finished in time for the election," Bernardi added, "but if they are, the Homecoming committee will defray the cost."

"I was so angry about the theft that I thought of calling off the contest," he admitted. "But it will be held tomorrow as scheduled, along with class elections."

Of the ten semi-finalists, five finalists will be chosen at a rally to be held Thursday, Oct. 29 in Morris Dailey auditorium. The queen's identity will be a secret to both the contestants and the student body until she is crowned the following night at the Coronation ball.

Five judges will pick the finalists and the queen. They are four San Jose Merchants whose names haven't yet been announced and Phil Waugaman, student body president of College of the Pacific.

Coronation ball bids went on sale yesterday, and will be available the rest of this week at a booth under the Library Arch.

Press Conference

By VIRGINIA GAUCH

(Editor's note: ASB President John Aitken has requested this space to give views to what he considers important facts and these views will appear at his convenience.)

John Aitken, student body president, announced yesterday that vandals broke into the bulletin board in front of the Student Union Tuesday night and stole about 20 of the homecoming queen candidate photographs.

"On being informed of the incident I was quite disappointed that an event such as this could happen on the campus," Aitken stated.

"I have only confidence in our students and certainly hope that none of them had anything to do with the vandalism. Although this act leaves the Student Court no alternative but to prosecute anyone found in connection with or in possession of the stolen pictures," he added.

He also said, "I hope this incident will not mar what I hoped would be the most successful homecoming program up to date at State."

"The pictures were posted on the board to give students a chance to see who they would be voting for in Friday's election. They actually have no monetary value and whoever committed this prank did it out of his own selfish wants," Aitken concluded.

Ceramics Classes Find Home In Old Technical High School

By NEIL FRANK

San Jose State college students, for the most part, have little to do with the old San Jose Technical high school buildings. While many classes are held in the wings near the Engineering building, most students have only one or two such classes there, if indeed, any.

But the forlorn and decrepit old buildings house some of the busiest and most interesting activity connected with the college.

The ceramics area of the Art department, after many cramped, dark and obscure years spent in the basement of the Administration building under the Health office, has been transferred to new and spacious quarters in the old high school building.

The rest of the apartments in that wing are being used as store-rooms and workshops, with the easternmost end being remodeled into the headquarters of the college Receiving department.

Byron Bollinger, the college's Supervisor of Construction and Repair, and a small crew of workers, are doing an enterprising job in converting these condemned buildings into useful ones. They are doing it completely on their own.

Although the administration bought the high school buildings, they apparently set no funds aside for the remodeling of this particular wing.

Bollinger and his crew work on it when they find the time. And little by little, room by room, piece by piece, they have accomplished amazing results.

Last summer they moved the ceramics section into its new headquarters. They finished the construction of an entire high-ceilinged room, built a chimney for the kilns, and transferred all the ceramics equipment, including the mastodontic kilns, with a great deal of exertion. This quarter the ceramics area has a home that is adequate to its needs—at least much more so than its last one.

Now, Bollinger is in the process of transferring the receiving department from its present position in the basement of the Science building. The Receiving department is continually busy. It receives all the material that a college needs to have to run with any semblance of order and productivity — books, light bulbs, nuts, bolts, nails, etc.

The Science building is more crowded than the ceramics section in the administration building. In its new headquarters, unloading and distribution will be greatly simplified.

Bollinger, however, doesn't plan to stop here. He has a hatfull of ideas for the old building's renovation. And he'll put them into effect—when he finds the time!

Rocci Pisano Advises Fresh At Fireside Meet Tomorrow

Rocci Pisano will be faculty adviser for tomorrow night's Fresh fireside session to be held at 7 p.m. at the Student Y, 272 S. Seventh street, Jan Seitz, president of the "Y", announced yesterday.

The firesides are held for the purpose of carrying on the good times and friends enjoyed at Freshman camp.

Students to speak at the informal session will include: Hank Ramp and Sherry Nuernberg, past Freshman camp counselors.

The fireside will be over in time for the students to attend the Fresh - Sophomore mixer, Miss Seitz said.

Vote Name Change By Trustee Group

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UP) — The California school trustee association voted Tuesday for a more "representative" name of the organization, "The California School Boards Association."

The name change came during the morning session of the second day of the three-day 23rd annual convention of the group, meeting in the San Jose Civic auditorium with more than 400 delegates in attendance.

The group said the use of "trustee" in the title of the organization indicated a more limited membership than actually is embodied under the new title.

Following the general session, the delegates broke up into panel discussions.

Staff Announces Picture Deadline

Only two weeks remain in which seniors may sign up for graduation pictures in the 1954 La Torre, according to Roger Flanagan, co-editor of the annual. Pictures must be taken by Nov. 6 in order to meet the yearbook deadline.

Sign-ups will be taken from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. every day next week in the La Torre office, Room 8 in the Journalism building. Pictures will be taken at the Hollywood Studio, 41 N. First street.

Only 2,089 copies of La Torre remain for reservation, Flanagan states. They may be purchased at the Graduate Manager's office. A $3 deposit may be made now and the balance paid by May 31, 1954.

Swimmers To Meet

Fellows, do you like to swim, especially under water?

The Skin Divers, men's YMCA sponsored organization will hold its second meeting tonight at 7:30 p.m. at the YMCA on the corner of Third and Santa Clara streets, according to Bill Coats, "Y" director.

Membership requirements include swimming ten lengths of the YMCA pool using three different strokes, under water, freestyle and breast stroke. Swimmers also must pass the senior life saving tests.

YMCA membership is required of all those accepted for membership in the Skin Divers.

Simpson To Run

SAN JOSE, Calif., Oct. 21 (UP) State Superintendent of Schools Roy E. Simpson today announced he would be a candidate for reelection to the office in 1954.

Art Club Schedules Two Field Trips To SF Saturday

Bob Kuster was elected president of Alpha Gamma, art fraternity, at a meeting held recently.

Other officers elected were Gail Johnson, vice-president; Norma Thies, secretary; Dale Morris, treasurer; Jim Olson, publicity chairman; and Nina Fitch, historian.

Two field trips are scheduled for Saturday to the De Young Art Museum and to the Palace of the Legion of Honor.

Students planning to attend these trips should sign up in the art wing.

Meeting place for the trips is 240 S. Eighth street at 10 a.m.

Prof To Attend SF Meeting

Dr. Willard J. Saunders, assistant professor of business, is scheduled to attend the opening of a special two-day conference in San Francisco, today, sponsored by the American College of Life Underwriters of Philadelphia, Pa.

The conference is for all persons from the western states who are engaged in life insurance education and especially those who teach adult education classes for life insurance agents who are preparing for their Chartered Life Underwriter examinations. These examinations are comparable to the C.P.A. exams for accountants.

Discussion and exchange of new ideas for improving the effectiveness of life insurance instruction will highlight the session.

Dr. Saunders will give a course here Winter Quarter for local life underwriters preparing for their C.L.U. examinations.

$13.2 billions of life insurance funds are invested in utilities.

Scientists Talk Things Over

Ex-SJS Department Head Now Visits as College President

By MARILYN REESE

Dr. P. Victor Peterson, president of Long Beach State college, now on San Jose State campus for the council of state college presidents, first came to this campus in the fall of 1922 as chairman of the Natural Science department and served in various capacities here for 25 years. He came to California after serving as superintendent of schools in Clarksville, Iowa, for one year. Born and raised in Iowa, Dr. Peterson was graduated from Iowa State Teachers college at Cedar Falls. He received both his master's and his doctor's degrees at Stanford university.

During his 25 years at San Jose State, Dr. Peterson at one time held the position of Dean of Education. When he left the campus in 1947, he took over presidential duties at the newly-established Los Angeles State college. From there he went on to become president of Long Beach State college.

The campus site, consisting of 320 acres, was donated to the state of California by the city of Long Beach and cost $1,000,000, according to Dr. Peterson. There is a record enrollment of 3000 students this fall, operating in new temporary buildings.

Dr. Peterson's wife, Mary, also is a graduate of Iowa State Teachers college. They have three children. Their oldest son, named for his father, has an A.B. degree from San Jose State college, an M.A. from Stanford university, and a doctorate from Cornell university.

The former SJS faculty member related a curious parallel between his career and that of his son. At the age of 30, Dr. Peterson took a position in the Science department on this campus. Just 30 years later his son, also age 30, accepted a Science department position at Los Angeles State.

The Long Beach State college president served for 18 months in the Army during World War I.

Frosh To Play Fresno; May Be Last Full Year

Coach Bob Amaral's Spartababe football squad will be out to break into the win column Saturday after unsuccessfully challenging East and West Contra Costa in the first games of the season.

Their third encounter is with the untied freshman team of Fresno State college. The game is at Fresno and starts at 5 p.m.

This may well be the last season that the Spartababes play a full schedule of games. According to a new ruling by the Pacific Coast conference, freshman teams will be allowed to play only two games in a season.

College director of athletics, Wilbur V. Hubbard, said yesterday that the two-game limit will not change this year's game schedule for the freshmen. All the football games were contracted before June and do not come under the new ruling, Hubbard explained.

Awards for best down field blocking in the game against West Contra Costa went to Halsey and Henry Greenberg, right guard.

The frosh dropped their season opener to a strong East Contra Costa squad, 20-6. At that time the Vikings were rated as one of the powers in Northern California junior college play, and the San Jose frosh had only eight practice sessions before the game.

On the following Saturday, the San Jose State college freshmen lost to West Contra Costa, 45-7.

'We Wanna TD' Cry No Joke at OSC

By HOWARD APPLIGATE
UP Sports Writer

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 21 (UP) — The football fortunes of Oregon State college were at an all-time low ebb for a West Coast team today and fans were chanting "never have so many wanted so little."

Namely, a touchdown. Or even a point.

Oregon State has gone through five straight defeats without a score. That's an all-time Pacific Coast conference record. The University of Oregon's 1946 team set the old mark in 1946 by going scoreless in its last four games.

One slogan joshingly thrown about on the campus is "We will score in '54."

The Beavers have one dubious honor. They lead the PCC in number of yards on kickoff returns. (But then, they've received more kickoffs!)

This coming Saturday, Oregon State goes up against Idaho—a team that has won only one game. Despite their record, the Beavers may be favored to win and break their point drought. But backfield coach Ward Cuff, who scouted Idaho, has little encouragement. He said it probably will take three touchdowns to beat the Vandals. That may be too much to expect.

'Duck' Season Opens Oct. 24 For Spartans

By BART WILLIAMS

San Jose Golden Raiders will entrain for Eugene, Ore., tomorrow for a game Saturday with a team that does everything right, yet can't seem to emerge on the long end of the scores.

The team is the University of Oregon, commonly known as the "Ducks." Their coach is the former head mentor of the University of Santa Clara, Len Casanova.

The Ducks, through a series of unfathomable and luckless mishaps, have managed to win only one contest in five starts this season, although their grid potential is considered to be one of the highest in the Pacific Coast Conference.

Assistant Spartan Coach Gene Menges scouted the Webfoots in their game against Washington last Saturday, and the ex-Spartan grid star stated that Oregon has a good line which can open holes for its plentiful array of speedy backs. The Ducks also have a very capable quarterback in George Shaw who led the nation in pass interceptions during his freshman year.

But the Oregon squad, despite its well-balanced material, has just not yet hit its stride.

The Spartans, however, keeping this high potential of the Ducks in mind, have drilled extensively on pass defense this week and if the unpredictable weather in the Willamette Valley continues fair, the air should be filled with a lot of leather Saturday.

Touch Football League Begins Fall Schedule

By WADE WILSON
Intramural Football Manager

Intramural touch football got off to a flying start last week with six games scheduled in the inter-fraternity league. After the usual scheduling difficulties and the obtaining of officials to work the games, the fall intramural program was under way.

The inter-fraternity league is divided with seven teams in each of the American and National leagues.

Plans for an independent league have been cancelled due to a lack of interest. Only four teams entered after an extension of time was granted for late entries.

The fraternity teams have shown much interest in the program and have displayed a lot of enthusiasm in fielding their teams. Last week in the American league, Kappa Alpha squeaked by the Sigma Alpha Epsilon team, with a 2-0 shut-out; Delta Sigma Phi beat Sigma Chi, 7-0; and Alpha Tau Omega eked out a close one over Theta Chi, 18-12, in the closing seconds of the game.

In the National League, there were two games played and one forfeit. Lambda Chi Alpha defeated Phi Sigma Kappa, 19-0, and Delta Upsilon won a well-played game, 12-0, over Sigma Pi. Sigma Nu won on a forfeit, 7-0, when the Kappa Tau team failed to show.

More officials have been secured for the games and it is hoped that this will speed up the game, cut down on protests, and make for a much better game. There will be at least two officials for each contest.

College Tourney Dates Are Set

The All-College Badminton Tournament has been set for Oct. 29 and Nov. 3, 5, and 12 from 7 to 10 p.m. in the Women's gym, Shirley Snyder, badminton chairman of the Co-Rec committee, announced recently.

The tournament is open to all men and women students and to all faculty members, Miss Snyder said.

Entry blanks for the event are available in Room 7 of the Women's gym on the Co-Rec desk. Applications must be filled out and returned not later than 5 p.m. Monday, Oct. 26.

Events scheduled for the tourney are men's and women's singles, men's and women's doubles and mixed doubles. Scoring will be 15 points per game for all except the women's singles. Eleven points will constitute a game for these contests. Each match will consist of the best two games out of three.

A schedule of the matches will be posted in the Women's gym Tuesday, Oct. 27, Miss Snyder said. Birds and racquets will be furnished to participants.

The tournament rules and regulations provide that each entrant is responsible for playing matches at the designated times, and that the player forfeits the game if he is not present within ten minutes after the time scheduled.

All participants will be required to wear tennis shoes, preferably white.

SEATTLE, Oct. 21 (UP) — Coach Johnny Cherberg made no secret today of the fact that Washington's defense strategy for Saturday's game with Stanford will be simply to smother ace Indian passer Bob Garrett.

Cherberg drilled the Huskies in pass defense yesterday during a long, rough scrimmage.

CASTLETON CHINA

Twin roses, the artist's tribute to happy marriage, are drawn in softest sepia tones with shadowy leaves and tendrils... on the famous Castleton Pearl Edge Shape. A dainty line of turquoise and gold brightens this lovely design... and contrasts with the richness of the fine, pearl-toned china. Although exquisitely shell-like and delicate to the eye, translucent Castleton has a strength and durability that will serve you for years. Set your table with the bride's choice, Castleton's "Gloria", and you set it in unexcelled and lasting beauty.
